CATALOGUES ON REQUEST

SALES CONDUCTED BY MR. F. A. CHAPMAN AND MR. A. N. BADE

THE varied and highly attractive group of American Period Furniture here offered for sale, represents a first attempt by Mr. Daniel Enoch, of Patchogue, Long Island, to reach the city's buying public of American Period Furniture. He has hitherto confined himself to supplying the wants of many residents of the South Shore. The majority of the pieces have been reconditioned, with a faithful adherence to original lines and construction. This being apparent, no mention has been made of restorations or repairs. A few of the pieces are Mr. Enoch's own productions and show very fine cabinet work. The collection contains many choice pieces in mahogany and maple in the Chippendale, Sheraton and Hepplewhite types.

CHARLES PACKER.
